

ECHO FOR REGION 4 READINESS

Preparing for Infectious Diseases in Advance of World Cup 2026

MODERATOR

Alex Isakov, MD, MPH
Executive Director, Health Security
Emory University
Principal, SRDRS HHS Region 4

SPEAKER

Gavin Harris, MD
Director of Education & Outreach
Emory University
Serious Communicable Diseases Program (SCDP)

SPEAKER

Jessica Pavlick, DrPH, MPH
Epidemiology Preparedness Director
Georgia Department of Public Health

June 16, 2026

12:00 – 1:00 pm ET

QR Code & Link to Register:

<https://iecho.org/public/program/PRGM176522796314220NV162LP6>

Session Objectives:

1. Develop a community of practice in the southeast states to solve problems and share best practices.
2. Recognize the most likely and highest-impact infectious disease threats anticipated during World Cup 2026.
3. Understand actionable strategies that can strengthen surveillance and situational awareness, infection prevention practices, and multi-disciplinary collaboration.

For more information about this ECHO session or program, email srdrs@emory.edu

Visit <https://scdp.emory.edu/>

Visit <https://srdrs4.org>

In Partnership with The ECHO Institute